LIST OF HUNGARIAN SUPPORTERS OF THE GERMAN CONNECTION."

---

ANTAL, István:

M.F.P. (Party of Hungarian Life). Called the "Hungarian Goebbels". Former Minister of Propaganda. Belonged to Premier Gömbös' entourage as press chief. As Under-Secretary of Justice responsible for the 1st and 2nd anti-Jewish Laws in 1938 and 1939. As Minister of Propaganda during the war made many anti-British and anti-American speeches.

BAKY, László:

Arrow Cross front. Under-Secretary of State in Sztójay's cabinet. Fanatical anti-Semite. Advocated and helped carry through mass deportations of Hungarian Jews. In summer 1944 led an attempted coup against the Regent as too moderate. Committee member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

BARTHA, Albert:

Minister of War in Bárdossy and Kállay Governments.

BÁRDOSSY, László:

Career diplomat. Foreign Secretary 1940. In April 1941, on Teleki's suicide, became Prime Minister and authorised the attack on Yugoslavia. Later organised the fictitious bombardment of Kassa by Russian aircraft and authorised invasion of Russia, afterwards declaring war on Britain. Resigned 1942, but continued to advocate pro-German policy. Committee member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

BASCH, Ferenc:

Official leader of the German Volksgruppe. Convinced Nazi.

BEREGFFY, Károly, General:

Arrow Cross Party. German origin, from the Bánffy. Minister of Defence and member of Council of Regency in Szálasi's Cabinet. Helped the Germans to loot the country.

BUDINSZKY, László

Arrow Cross Party. Lawyer by profession. Wrote violent anti-Jewish articles. Minister of Justice in the Szálasi Cabinet. As deputy he was one of Szálasi's most loyal friends. Demanded full co-operation with Germany.

CSIA, Sándor:

Old Arrow Cross Party man. Secretary General of the Party. Member of the Council of Regency under Szálasi.

ENDRE, László:

Extreme reactionary. Secretary of State under the Sztójay Government. Was largely responsible for the persecution of Jews. Later Government Commissioner for all Hungarian Operational areas. One of the worst men in Hungary.

FIALA, Ferenc:

Arrow Cross journalist. Head of the Press Department in Szálasi's office.

GÉRA, József, Dr.:

Prominent member of Arrow Cross Party and signed decree on matters of party organisation and discipline. Member of Szálasi's Council of Regency.

GRUBER, Lajos:

Arrow Cross Party, and chief of its terrorist organisation. Committed several bomb outrages with his storm troopers. Escaped into Germany in 1943, organised Hungarian extreme Nazis there and in Croatia.

HAIN, Péter:

Appointed Head of Political Police by Sztójay. Persecutor of Socialists and Jews.

HILLERBRONTH, Vilmos, Brigadier-General.

Former head of Air Force Department in Ministry of Defence and Government Commissioner for Aircraft Production. Minister of Production in Szálasi Government.

HEJAS, Iván:

Member of National Defence Association. A notorious white terrorist. Leader of the Double Blood Cross Federation.

HUBAY, Kálmán:

Arrow Cross Party. Leading figure of the Hungarian extreme Right. Deputy for Szálasi, and leader of Party's Cultural Office.

IMREDY, Béla:

Hungarian Renewal Party. Former Prime Minister. Since 1938 regularly advocated closest co-operation with Attila. Able, fanatical and influential.

JAROSS, Andor:

Hungarian Renewal Party. Became Minister of the Interior after the Germans occupied Hungary, March 1944, and as such officially responsible for Jewish deportations. Did his best to push Hungary more into collaboration with the Germans. Left the Sztójay Government because it was not pro-German enough. Committee Member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

JUCSEK, Béla:

M.S.P. Minister of Agriculture and Supply in various cabinets, including those of Sztójay and Szálasi.

KASSAY, Ferenc.

Arrow Cross. Minister of Propaganda in Szálasi's Government.

KEMÉNY, Gábor, Baron:

Arrow Cross Party. Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Szálasi Cabinet.

KISS, Ferenc: (Arrested.)

Extreme Right Wing. Former Chairman of the Actors' Chamber. Pro-Nazi. Director of the Hungarian National Theatre under Szálasi.

KOLOZSVÁRY-BORCSA, Mihály:

M.E.P. Under Secretary of State for Propaganda in the Sztójay Cabinet. Before his Government post he was for five years President of the Chamber of Press. Very pro-German. Destroyed Liberal and Opposition Press. Member of Committee of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

KOVÁRČ, Emil:

Arrow Cross Party. In 1939 he was chief organiser of the entire Hungarian Movement. When sentenced for a political plot he escaped to Germany. Returned after 19th March, 1944, to Hungary. Minister for Total Mobilisation in the Szálasi Cabinet.

KUNDER, Antal.

Hungarian Renewal Party. Serbian by origin. Was Minister of Commerce in 1938 and 1939. In the Sztójay Cabinet of 1944 he was again appointed Minister of Commerce. Able and energetic but always used his abilities to further German-Hungarian co-operation.

LUKÁCS, Béla:

President of M.E.P. and leader of its extreme right wing. Influential and detrimental politician. Secretary of State in the Ministry of Agriculture in 1938.

MAKIKAI, János:

M.E.P. One of the leading pro-German publicists. Was spokesman when anti-Jewish laws were introduced.

MÁRTON, Béla:

Extreme Right Wing. The "Hungarian Ley". After the German occupation was made dictator of all industrial workers. Did everything to annihilate his former political rivals. After 1919 was the chief of the MOVE "A clandestine Fascistic organisation". Committee member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

MECSÉR, András:

Former editor of "Egyedül vagyunk". Hungarian Minister to Berlin. A personal friend of Hitler, who often acted as private intermediary between Hitler and Hungarian official circles.

MESKÓ, Zoltán:

Co-founder of the Arrow Cross Party.

MILÓTAY, István:

Hungarian Renewal Party. Able, unscrupulous and harmful journalist. Editor in Chief of the daily paper, "Új Magyarság". Fanatical pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic. Committee member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

OSÁJ, György:

Extreme Right. Editor in Chief of the "Új Magyarság". A publicist of the kidney of Hajniss and Milotay.

PALFFY, Fidél, Count Erdödi:

Leader of the Hungarian National Socialist Party. Supported Imrédy. Violent Nazi.

RÁCZ, Jenő.

Deputy leader of Party of Hungarian Renewal and President of the Joint Executive Committee of Hungarian Renewal and Arrow Cross Parties. Former Minister of War. Vice-Premier and Minister without Portfolio in the Sztójay Government. Committee member of the National Association of Right Wing Deputies. Chairman of the Upper House under Szálasi Government. Violently pro-German and anti-Semitic.

RAJNISZ, Ferenc.

Hungarian Renewal Party. Chief of the Imrédy Party. Similar type to Mihotay, and member of Council of Regency. Minister of Cults and Education, in Szálasi Government. Vice-Chairman of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

RÁTZ, Kálmán:

Was member of the Hungarian counter-espionage organisation. As such pretended to have Communistic sentiments. After they discovered that he was a counter-espionage agent he openly declared his Fascistic sympathies. After the Stalingrad Victory again pretended Left sentiments. Left the Arrow Cross Party and became Independent. Not trusted by anyone.

REMÉNYI-SCHNELLER, Lajos.

M.E.P. Since Darányi Cabinet 1938, Minister of Finance. Violently pro-Nazi. Alleged to have subordinated Hungary's interests to Germany, especially in allowing Germany to accumulate her large credit clearing balance.

RUSZKAY, Jenő, Col./Gen.

National Socialist. Was forbidden to wear uniform or use his military title by the old régime for his activities. He retired officially in 1940. In 1944 Szálasi restored his former rights.

SZAKVÁRY, Emil:

Arrow Cross. Government Commissioner for Fuel under Sztójay. Minister of Industry in Szálasi Government, and as such largely responsible for the evacuation of industrial plant, etc., to Germany.

SZÁLAJÓ, Ferenc:

Founder of the "Party of Hungarian Will." In 1937 he was charged with preparing revolution and sentenced to 10 months' imprisonment. This was increased to 3 years and the party was disbanded. The Hungarian National Socialist Party emerged from a union of this party with the Feszteich Group. In 1939 it was itself disbanded but re-emerged a month later as "Arrow Cross." When Szálasi was granted an amnesty in 1940 he took over the leadership of the Arrow Cross. On 15th October, 1944, after a political coup, he seized power and became Prime Minister.

SZASZ, Lajos:

M.E.P. Minister of Commerce and Industry in many Governments, including those of Sztójay and Szálasi. Able administrator, but always used his power and ability in the German side. Chairman of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

SZÖLÖSSI, Jenő:

Deputy Premier in Szálasi Government. Vice-Chairman of National Association of Right Wing Deputies. Leader of Parliamentary Group of the Nyilás Deputies and Editor of "Osszehartás".

SZTOJAY, Dóme:

A Magyarised Yugoslav. For some years Hungarian Minister in Berlin, whence he constantly pressed the German cause. In the Coup of March 1944 Hitler secured his appointment as Prime Minister, in which capacity he arranged for compliance with all Germany's wishes, including fuller military participation by Hungary in the War, suppression of the Left, and persecution of the Jews.

TAMÁDI-NAGY, András:

M.E.P. President of the Lower House. Member of the Committee of National Association of Right Wing Deputies. Held numerous ministerial posts.

TOMCSÁNYI, Kálmán:

Member of Double Blood Cross Federation. Nationalist, reactionary but anti-Nazi.

TÓTH, Tibor:

Former President of the M.E.P. Vice-President of Lower House. Member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

VAJNA, Gábor:

Arrow Cross Party. Was director of a munition factory. When he joined the National Socialist Movement he was dismissed. Joined the Arrow Cross Party and wrote violent pro-German articles. Chairman of Cultural Committee of Arrow Cross Party. Minister of Interior in the Szálasi Cabinet. Committee Member of National Association of Right Wing Deputies.

VAJTA, Ferenc:

Journalist, writer for extreme Right-Wing papers. Guilty, perhaps, of more continuous and loathsome attacks on the Allies than any other Hungarian publicist.

VINCE, Gőrgy:

Journalist. Violent pro-Nazi and author of numerous pro-German articles.

VÖRÜLÉ, János:

Minister in Ankara under Sztójay. Although he eventually repudiated the Szálasi Government, he had always shown himself an extreme pro-Nazi and pathetically credulous to news favourable to Germany. Had lectured, etc., on pro-German topics.

WERTH, Henrik; Col./Gen.

Chief of General Staff at the time of Germany's attack on Yugoslavia, for which he and Bartha were mainly responsible.

ZADRAVETZ, István:

Bishop and Chaplain in Chief to the Hungarian Army. Took part in the White Terror, and the Franco forgeries. Practically the only prominent Churchman who throughout identified himself completely with the pro-German and anti-Bolshevik cause.
